<input type="checkbox"/> I make a binding registration for the entrance examination. (The Examination Committee will decide whether and when you will be invited to further rounds of the admission test after completing the following application process.)

The admission procedure for the MA in Applied Theatre – Artistic Practice and Society consists of three parts:

1. Online registration and submission of portfolio from 1st February, 2024 to 28th March, 2024
2. Online round of selection process by invitation, 5th and 6th April, 2024
3. Selection process in Salzburg by invitation (only after portfolio has been assessed positively; time: 3rd and 4th May, 2024)

The following documents must, as part of the portfolio, be submitted in one pdf file, with this cover page:

- A portfolio with one (!) artistic work (e.g. videos or documentations of own works) with the aim to get also a visual impression of the respective works. Not only written concepts should be submitted.
Audio and Video material is to be made accessible through link within the pdf.
- A concept for a possible master thesis in the context of the MA Applied Theatre (module 9 of the curriculum: <http://schauspiel.moz.ac.at/seiten/applied-theatre/curriculum.php>, e.g. a participatory project, a youth project, a performative intervention etc.). The concept should take up no more than one page of A4 plus any material in the form of images.
- A Bachelor's dissertation or equivalent academic thesis.
- A declaration in the following words: "I confirm that I conceived and completed the works presented in this portfolio myself."
- Curriculum vitae in tabular form plus personal statement/letter of motivation.
- Evidence of an intern placement over the course of several months (eg: an assistance) in a relevant field of practice.
- Where appropriate a letter of recommendation (e.g. an evidence-based recommendation or a report by a teacher or theatre practitioner).

Date of submission as one pdf:
28th March, 2024
